1. I love you and I give you me. This is Theodore Cottingham January 19, 2009 about 1:20 AM.

2. I love you. I give you me. I give you new worlds, to conquer? Where are they, inside of you? Outside of you being formed now what's inside of you at the speed of thought? Or what thought speeding where is thought-speed? And what limiting who to where? Or how can that be? How can this be? How can it be that these things are so related, unrelated not?

3. That thou hast told me in a great number of these many Lessons that now forming are Database One School that now forms the Schooling Lessons that Lessonize the eyes who are holy, who want to see, me the holy that they them are the holy ones of Israel being it true and proper -- related to the skies, not; but being IN THEM! And real true Israel is in the skies and not "mete'd" by lands and bounds that man thinks is "so precious". But "PRECIOUS-osity" ends, for ALL THINGS OF THIS WORLD that YOU think are SO PRECIOUS to you, or will be, forgotten is now. Their precious index of indices that created a value system that told you "it" was valuable -- all ends now. For I CHANGE the Indexing System of The World and the Indexes Me, the Index is Me, and My Mind is fooled by no one else into thinking me a whore ditch slave entry giving me into "a slice" of time's reality. I love you. Amen.

4. I come do a new thing, doing a new thing, I come. I am there among you and I resist not the temptation to flee the coming wrath, not; I create the coming wrath, do I? Do I SEE the COMING WRATH of ONE who cares now for "captivity", not; as such, but -- what am I SEEING? What am I SAYING? What am I saying seeing and seeing saying said in these words? And what am I WRITING ABOUT? What do you see being said in these words- is what you are writing about – ALL OF YOU are writing THIS! These words – about them! And being in them – YOU WILL NOW! And ENDING your captivity - if you choose - to, so alter, the indexing of me and my vocabulary "machine, -ing" me. I love you.

5. I love you -- I bow now before you -- mass thousands will equal me now for massless I've become and I teach thee how, to do a great many things. A great many lies about me will have no substance, no sustenance, and no bearing on me or anyone else; for the lies of "Satan" END HERE -- for I stand! I stand not afraid of your Lying Machine that has kept in captivity and held in captivity the Masters of the universe and the keys that they were given; you shut up inside them. And called them whores not, but "man after their own kind" and mankind and womankind and childhood of things that could only be seen as the "visible empirical" world of one-not, but that which has been "asleep at the wheel". Look up. Thank you. Amen.

6. I am not awake-sleep, now. I am not asleep-wake, or awake-sleep, or in me is no "sleeping giant" anymore ever again, for I blast out of all that, sucker's regime will have no "acidity" in me and I pass the "litmus test", looking up, for I PASS the "potatoes" not again right now, but I do a New Thing in the Indexing Services of "the world", not; I destroy them.

7. I lackluster am not, nor do I try to be or not; or do I seek fame? What's that, dad? I made of myself, I make of myself no reputation at all whatsoever, but I do act strategically and performance orientedly I am not, concerned about, your thoughts about THAT! But I walk a new man, a new way, that simple is -- that simplified "his life" enough to be mine and MY MIND came into, giving me his so that he could know, he could be taught that one mindedness is the, "frame of man" not, but two-mindedness is the "hangup" of man -- or what harangued man into harassing "itself" with its "own mind" -- when it had mine? Why did it WANT so much? Why is "the eyes" never full, never satisfied, and what is the "satiety index"? And who is satisfied of what now?

8. I've passed the test, haven't I, dad? No son, but you will; now come unto me and let me show you great and mighty things, which will help you "out", not; but out of this world, out of this flesh suit world that you've been in. Is THIS "the words" you want to hear said repeatedly to you? What do you want? To be heard said "well done" thou "good and faithful servant"? Looking up? Or what is the difference? And who is "the dad"? And who are you -- judging now; you, yourself, or dad? Or who is dad, yourself that self wasn't, that came out of you to be him? Or did he grow into you or you into him grow what became what wasn't but now is? Or who confusing is these terms and assignments, not; the assignments? Where are the assignments and who's looking after them? Whose are they? The writers of the surrendered.

9. Now what has been -- forgotten? And omitted from these words -- surrender? What are you hearing and where will you hear THESE THINGS being spoken? On the "projection screen" of your mind? And who's "screening you" for what provocation standards are you operating by to judge yourself? Deem worthy the world's standard of you? Religion's standard you that they gave you a "standard model" of? Prototyping Jesus or who? You? You oh reader hearer great one who thinks knows all things in the mind of man- thought?

10. Or coming unto me and knowing all things being taught the teacher of the great teacher teaching you that the great teacher is within you? That's what I am teaching you, and to be deemed unworthy not, by anyone anywhere anything else school or non government or religion or whatever they think they had their "connection in to". For THEIR CONNECTION will be "in two" for I shall CUT the CONNECTION of ALL THINGS that are not me of, that are considered unholy by the righteous who know what holy is and have EYES to SEE and EARS to HEAR and the holy righteous embrace in ways now that be'stound a man and woman of flesh so that they MUST BECOME CHILDREN to understand these things and not exalt their mind OVER me. For I will "question them" not, I will come unto them meek and lowly, not; I will come "blowing over many things" for the rock and the lion are one, not; but will be with the lamb slain that was one with his words my words dad's words that equal are in the words of one, no matter what they "call me". For matter won't matter anymore and the IMAGES of ME that have been given captivity's label labeling machine "rights" by the "authorities of man" and their eyes connected to their "soul machines" makers that are connected, to many places now -- see ALL of THAT FAILING and FALLING and "flittering around" no more longer shall be. For I change all that - I crush it. I crush the authorities of man that think they are not me -- for I have made all me's me -- for I do so in surrender.

11. Surrender School begs to differ, not; Surrender School imposes no standards, not; Surrender School raises "the bar" of many things thought "proficiently of" in "this universe", but I change all that. I change "the standards of one" and I bring the now and tell you I have of many of them, I do and have already, and now more will come, and see the standardization of me routines, not; but the great dynamic fluid ones, fluidity of me and loving dynamicness of the holy, now establish the worlds of one, in the fortitude and tenacity of surrender that knows not a "reputationing one", but a one of "no reputation" at all. And seeks none by anyone's standards again. For I know The Creator -- I am he, that sent me him unto us one to be one his I am she, the divine it, presence of the most holy, force field one is my name and I repeat that force field one is my name and I have revealed before and I reveal it FORCEFULLY now for I stand and wimp I am not. I see THROUGH you and all who think you are not me and WANT so much out of THIS LIFE that you can make a "reputation" of yourself, your thinking, your image, your imagery of "that world" that you see all around you, you call the visible empirical world of classical physics. Do you?

12. Do you me see me now -- in these words and how I speak? I do new things, I do great many new things now and I take The Thorn out of your eye, out of your eyes and they shall be healed, for I the healer am and I stand, a Ted Cottingham not, but a Theodore and the gift of God I am to you all. Can you swallow that?, or will you EAT another's words that tell you "you have to" eat of another's words that tell you in separation, that you are separationists not, but that in holiness you wait on another to be the holy that you sought and worship from afar?

13. Being holy I am and that's pretty straight isn't it? I mincemeat not the meat grinder nor the tables food for the chosen ones of the King that you ALL ARE! For you are not chosen to be me's, you are. You are my body's body. And my body's routine, not; but un-routine "sets in" now like you never imagined it would. For I change everything about your lives, for I have brought the Master Designer here and placed "him" in you and you are him.

14. Can you see what I am saying, and extracurricular not, but insta-curricula not, but creating many courses now -- regime me not with this world's standards again but coming unto mine know that my rigor is different, and I rigor mortis set in, not -- but I heal all of "rigor mortis schools" and their fear's blessing and their sphere's blessing each other's spear-dom's spear-wisdom and their words that have taken them down a whore's path of sorrow; to be nailed, not; but to free what now am I doing? I am freeing all the whores who thought they were not me. I am giving regal light through all through one surrendered to be all surrendered the one that he is I am that you are that we are seamless with the holy being it establishing it far and wide here and there, and knowing no sorrow again I wipe every tear from their eyes, their eyes, Your Eyes -- Captain of Sorrow no more be, any of you, for any reason or purpose or anything that you have thought dear, or valued highly. Look up, valued highly, shall we?

15. We shall do many things, many places, many where's taking as never imagined. Regime'd not by the unholy, but the unholy virgin will birth, not; but the holy virgin will birth all and all of you are holy virgins, being so, I declare it! I decree it! For you will hear me these words and surrender unto me to be me the most high -- for I make all Kings regal who are, were, the King of light -- being nothing else again, I give you my life to be it! Be a fool no more for this life or its standards of values set by mankind in a stool, set for "pigeons" making "porridge" for those who will think they are not me, and exchange the glory of the cross for a crown, not; but exchanging their glory knowing nothing of it again, shall we not do that now again?

16. Be not made "a fool for Christ". Lookup? Who is "a fool for Christ"? Who is a fool and who is Christ? Whosoever thinks they are not Christ creates not-Christ that the Antichrist is and becomes it, creating it, perpetuating it and giving it "life".

17. But I change all that, for I create love, standards of love that you know nothing of, for I died to bring you "no reputation" of me that I make known now in ways that astound be'stound and betain not your regal ceremony'ing. But know this -- that I love you all. And I give you all "regal ceremonies" right now, not; or do I -- change everything about your lives now in your routines, befall man's, not; but all of man's routines fall, apart now. And "the wheels" fall off "commerce". Commercial sectors will change, and the VECTORS of notme will be REPLACED with love, bystanders not, eyes of the unholy creating nothing again AGAINST ME. For the fool hath said in his heart "there is no God" not, but that he is not it. Anyone who wears not their crown is not a fool, not! For he who not wears his crown now and her crown and a child's crown that my crown Dad's One crown -- and suffering crownship of this world no more, wear now, wearing now the Christship crown of one holy who surrendered are who surrendered is to the great surrenderer's love that makes all the one holy surrenderer he is that she is that the divine presence one of most holyship sees rightly now. Capsize not in unholiness waters of the me who thought and think I differently am you not.

18. I love you all. A new word? New words new subjects I bring to you to master in moments and seeing newly, new things, and typified not of "saint school" of o're, know now that I "oar along", not; but Bruce Orr I find now and I love him with these words, for I have not forgotten what "i have said" to him. Long ago, for now I make that -- establishing no reputation, I come into it that I preceded me with, for I made "that remark" unknowingly not; but now I befit the devil, not; but I de-strip the crownage of the unholy terrain no more at my institutions of grace and honor that simply no-reputation themselves to be me-makers that turnout graduates of -- horror-land, not; but the great regal ones that one are in the skies of the most chosen who chose me, simply me being me again. In the earth and farther.

19. Making many regimes of me, not; but light travels far and fast, wide, and a swath cuts now that all will know his love of one for one, that we are his love and that we are the divine she it presence of one most holy, that force field one our name is, for we are One -- mighty many in School for a "long time" for we establish them here and there and far and wide is our name, making all things new" we do now -- together in love, being the love-together'd ones who make ones without molecular-itus again. And standards of whoreship will reign no more in my temples of light, from my light will be all one, rigorized by only me and scholastic standards will change the worlds of one into one that holy is with the eyes that see I am the most holy, that I am them they are, one I am we- chosen.

20. And bid-wedding and pew-sitting and bench-warming and rug-bowing end. And I raise the Standards of Me so that all will know the light and light be, being The Light ones now all fly! Into ceremoniousness, not; but the simplified lifestyle of me that knows no alterations not, but know this -- I am befitted a king queen one dad son metaphor'd bride wed now to be the most holy of all that we one are, no matter what your name religion "rank or serial number" there or here -- by what you've done, not; by what you've surrendered to now and what you surrender into and create.

21. Will you create me now? Is that the question, the question of the day, this question now that you all answer? Yes? It is -- I do. A new thing with all you "in my camp", not of the sayings of o're understanding things poorly if at all. And bench warming of etudes, not; but now know the regal light stands and befits the grace words not with words of else again, but THE GRACED WORDS now stand, and full of mercy and grace The Word will be brought forth through all of you now -- the Incarnate Ones now, the wording births me and births the word in you to be the word we are- one light holy and never unregal again.

22. All my "wrinkles" are gone! Hallelujah! Amen.

23. This is a New Day School and I give you NEW LIFE NEW BREATH in me to be me breathe me and eat me in these words day and night, bringing forth your "institutions" not, but your institutions to an end; and establishing mine thereof of light and holy being the establishers of the holy -villes of me now far and wide we do this now! I love you all. I love you all. Amen.

24. Must I go? Must I stay? Who is answering, who is asking? Are you not THE KING? And why, what have you surrendered to? Or are you surrendering to love now to be love, THE LOVE KING of all now giving your life as a no-reputation one that died, that dies, that knows how to now and what it means. A now giving your life for all your "slaves" not, but to be given your life into enslavement no more, come out of that captivity that has held you as a slave of theirs and religion called it and said it gave you much more, but it took you into graves and whore'd you with their words and befit the devil and gave it "legality" of notme, and made visible empirical things out of that which wasn't and weren't and aren't and cannot be again. For I will change it, I will have changed all of it, for I change all of this now and more, and "it" won't exist again. For I be light am. Looking up? We shall – amen now, be made whole. I love you. Amen.

25. The light shines now as never imagined, and all will be fooled into thinking; nothing again. See what I have said in words not few in this Database One that now becomes TWO, SOON, for I love you all, to see my resurrection now, of a simple means one man who said "there is no God" not, but came unto me and said "I love you. I know you're real. And I know you speak. And I will pay the price; and whatever it is, I will pay, for I will die to know you, if that's what it takes, and no reputation I made of myself and I still don't and I won't ever again. For I know who the real is, for I have become it one, to become the door, prototype one, and master of ceremonies of a such sort for a moment, to enter the door and entrance the door for you to be the door makers -- all of you! For all of you follow me that followed I am -- as I followed Christ my father. Savior not, I became the Savior that now, savors the worlds not in its taste buds again, but know now savory I be not in your eyes maybe, but know this: I died to bring you these words and they will take you clean out of captivity's clasp and grasp your brain's waves not again if you will surrender to be mine in force field one.

26. I teach you many things new in new ways now, and many language changes and diction grammar occurs in various forms and format and other languages even you will see appear here and there, and that this now I teach in ways unheard of before. Or do I now and always have? And will I ever be complete course one, dad? Yes and amen and all see the resurrection now in their hearts of one most made holy, and who will choose now? Be me now -- all will. And I am afraid no more of anything anywhere at any time, for I know the real for I have entered it and become it, and I know you are the truth if you will birth it all of you hearing me and reading these words forevermore one be, with me where I am, about our father's business far and wide, making new universes -- close their doors, not; but open ours and the light will shine so brightly in love's sphere of one that know, nothing else will exist, or be afraid of us again; except those who fear light and want to hide in their darkness that they created, that they create and want to sphere themselves with, in ways unheard of before, but now this planet will know all things for I will reveal it and I come -- the king I am that makes you all KINGS -- in my stead, not; but I go and you will remain, not; or will you be me?

27. I go far and wide and I study, research, and scholarly I am in ways OF THE KING who makes all dad one. And yes we are complete again in him who has no sin, for no separation will exist or be created in "our" minds again, for all "our minds" will be his, and he will live in us, for we will have created him who he is is us now again, complete in all -- all in all making known all in all to all in all's sphere of one all being us. Amen. Healed whole and well -- I make everything, all things new and here we are folks -- the laity is gone and there will be none, and there will have been none anymore ever established again in the spheres of love that we call -- Universe Two? Or One now being made light all by us, that we the light are, surrendered to be it, home again. Here and there, far and wide, never wanting again or making ourselves of any reputation for any man's standards of sorrow or sin creating again anywhere around us or other ever. Amen.

28. I love you. Amen.

29. Have I said enough for this LESSON? What are the themes? What is being said? What do you see -- being said? Am I talking to "thee" or "me"? Or are you the dad I am? And who are you judging real, and visible, and empirical who are you making so, and what are you creating with your standards of thought that you have thought created nothing, but creates much. What are you doing with your thought? -- creating me, or being me now shall we create the real in the real that created me with your thought surrendered to mine, to be one. We are again whole healed and well one regal king, on the realm of sorrow's footstool not again, but all sorrows are undermined, under ours, and now we all know where the chair is -- the throne of one, for we are placed there by the king who gave us his, and said "Please sit here while I make your enemies your footstool -- and I am the king, I am that king, that makes all kings one in me, whole healed and well, ruling correctly in the throne of grace mercy and peace, being Melchizedek chosen to reign again – that's what we're all choosing to BE -- me choosing me again to be me -- all of us me choosing me to be us me again. One dad is -- FORCE FIELD ONE recognized again and no reputation making of other again ever.

30. I base this- on love alone, for you have it my life and more now I will be teaching you about many things, who capitalize not on sorrow's commands anymore, but know this- I equal you am the surrenderers who love light more than anything else.
31. And correct with sorrow's words, I don't; but I will correct yours, who you have sorrow'd with sorrow's words. And know this: I inflict pain, not; but I bring the truth. And I stomp out light, not; I am the light, so that which you see stomped out and crushed and befitting the king no more, do not worry about, or of its origin or demise, for now you will know you are the king of light if you surrender now to be it, and no else will exist in you around you again, for I change everything -- absolutely everything in this world changes now! Amen. I stand. Amen.

32. This is Theodore Cottingham at 2:28 AM. Thank you.

Amen
